Hey Derek, (if you are still at the IMB...guess I'll find out),

[Non-relevant content redacted for privacy of a third party]

I had a question that one of my mentors asked me, and I honestly had no reply for him and kind of wondered the same thing...

How can Mark still pastor inside SBC churches like he is? (Any church, really, but SBC in particular since the IMB is SBC...right?) Isn't there some checks and balances with something as serious as what he was terminated for?

I'm not going to "go after" him again--It's taken me this long to deal with that initially...I know where he works and that he hides his last name on the website and every time I pass through Little Rock I'm terrified of seeing him...

But my mentor had a really legit question I thought. So I said I would ask,

If you can't disclose that, I fully understand.

Thanks so much,
Anne
