Dear Anne,

Am very glad to hear that you are thriving in Nashville. Things are well, but busy here. As of February of this year, I'm now a joyful father of 3.

I appreciate you providing me a heads-up on your new book. If I understand correctly what you describe below—describing the scenario but not providing any details about his name, place of employment, or any other details that could reveal his specific identity or the IMB's—then I think that sounds very appropriate.

I pray that the Holy Spirit would give you much depth of insight as you work on this book and that its words would ultimately be his rather than yours, God the Father's agenda for a lost world not yours, and that the name of Jesus would be made more famous because of it.

Blessings,
Derek
